Young Practitioner's Conference in Alternative Dispute Resolution
Uncommonly Civil:
Views on a Career in Arbitration from the West Coast

The California International Arbitration Council and Gibson Dunn welcome you to join a discussion surrounding the current developments in international arbitration in California. CIAC is a non-profit organization established by leading arbitration counsel, arbitrators, and academics throughout the State to support, promote, and advance the practice of international arbitration in California.

We encourage you to forward this invitation to colleagues and friends who would also benefit from this discussion.
